RING IN THE NEW YEAR WITH DINNER AND DANCING, BILTMORE STYLE

CORAL GABLES, FL (Dec. 16, 2001) - The historic Biltmore Hotel invites South Floridians to celebrate the coming of the New Year in style with dancing to the Big Band sounds of the Woody Herman Orchestra and dinner in either the hotel's signature La Palme d'Or or trendy 1200 restaurant. Ring in 2002 and take advantage of an array of packages that highlight accommodations, dinner and admittance to the hotel's 2002 Gala New Year's Eve Dance.

"The Biltmore creates the perfect environment for a very special New Year's celebration, one that will be remembered for years to come," said Dennis Doucette, hotel manager of The Biltmore. "We have put together a spectacular party with entertainment, décor and setting like no other and with attractive dinner and rooms packages available, The Biltmore is everyone's answer to a great New Year's Eve."

The New Year's Eve Dance will take place in the hotel's Country Club ballroom beginning at 8:30pm with dancing from 9:30pm to 1:30am. There will be open bar with premium liquors, party favors and a midnight champagne toast. Dinner packages in La Palme d'Or which include champagne are $249 per person and an additional $50 for wine pairings. The 1200 at The Biltmore menu with champagne is $179 per person and an additional $30 for wine pairings. All dinner packages include admittance to the New Year's Eve Dance.

The Biltmore is also spotlighting attractive rooms packages to accompany dinner and dancing. The Gold Package includes deluxe accommodations for two, the La Palme d'Or dinner with champagne and entrance to the New Year's Eve Dance and is priced at $665 per couple. The Silver Package highlights a 1200 dinner menu and is $525 per couple.

For those only interested in attending The Biltmore's New Year's Eve Dance, individual tickets are available for $99 per person. Please call (305) 445-1926 to purchase advance tickets or to make reservations for New Year's Eve packages.
